

JSNA Blackpool

Joint Strategic Needs Assessment

Search

- Home
- Developing Well
- Children and young peoples wellbeing
- Children and young peoples wellbeing
- Children and Young People's Mental Health
- Child neglect
- Child Poverty
- Child Sexual Assault
- Child Sexual Exploitation
- Economic Resilience
- Looked After Children / Children In Need
- Parental Substance Misuse
- School Life
- Special Educational Needs
- Youth Offenders
- Children's Strategic Needs Assessment 2015

Home > Developing Well > Children and young peoples wellbeing

Children and young peoples wellbeing

Last Modified 20/01/2020 14:59:09

Share this page

Children's and young people's well-being takes into account the many areas that affect well-being at different stages of their lives. It is important not only to understand what children and young people think is important for their own well-being, but also to think through how other wider more objective circumstances impact upon their well-being. For example, a right to good health and good education, to leisure play and culture, and to an adequate standard of living.

This section contains information on:

- Children and Young People's Mental Health
- Child neglect
- Child poverty
- Child Sexual Assault
- Child Sexual Exploitation
- Economic resilience
- Looked after children / children in need
- Parental substance misuse
- School life
- Children with learning difficulties and special educational needs
- Young offenders
- Children's Strategic Needs Assessment

↑ Back to top

Social Networks

Follow us on Twitter

SUPPORTED BY
Blackpool Council

Supported by
NHS
Blackpool
Clinical Commissioning Group